

Are you sick of struggling month after month just barely making ends meet...

“Turn £15 into £750/month in the 30 Minutes before You Go to Bed”

Keep reading and discover two of the most startling and least known moneymaking strategies ever released to the general public in the UK.

By using just one of these simple strategies, you'll wave goodbye to your financial struggles forever while receiving a continuous hands-off income stream year in and year out.

Examples of actual results from these simple strategies:

- £15 initial investment - 3 hours total time invested—£750 to £1000 a month—it's now automatic money every month
- Doubled his money in two days with no risk—bought a house for $2000 (yes, it's true)—resold in less than two days for $4000 without ever leaving home
- Leveraged these strategies into a multi-million dollar a year business

Dear Opportunity Seeker,

Before I explain just how it's done, let me tell you a little story.

Not too many years ago a close friend of mine went out for a loaf of bread and some milk. When Jane returned home, her two young daughters excitedly grabbed her hand and dragged her into their bedroom.

As she stepped in, she felt and heard the carpet squish. She knew immediately it was completely soaked with water. Her daughters proudly explained how they had brought the garden hose in through the window and washed the carpet because there was a dirt spot on it. They were so proud she could hardly punish them. You can imagine the sinking feeling in her stomach as Jane realized she now needed new carpet.

Jane's oldest daughter, Hannah, is now married with two daughters of her own. Fortunately, Hannah knows the proper way to clean the carpet now. In fact just last week, Hannah proudly told her mother how she had just shown her own daughters how to spot clean the carpet...without a garden hose.

What's that have to do with making money online? Just about everything.

You see, jumping headlong into making money online without using proven methods and tactics is much the same as trying to clean the carpet without knowing the proper way to do it.

You start by making mistakes...and end up with a huge mess and a bunch of wasted money.

Start making money online in 30 days or less

Before going any further, you need to know this opportunity is new to the UK. But a former office worker from the US—turned wealthy Internet Millionaire—continues using these methods while making up to $4.2 million (£2.1mil) a year. Not only that, he's been doing it successfully since 1996. Fortunately for you, he's now willing to share exactly how he does it.

Get ready to discover how to earn an income you've only dreamed about. Better yet, you need to print out this letter now. That way you'll be able to refer to it again and again.

Technical wizardry not required

Although it doesn't hurt, it's not required.

You do need to know how to...

- ...surf the web using a web browser like Internet Explorer
- ...send and receive email

If you can do that, you're well on your way to making money in 30 days or less.

[insert Johnson box #7]

How this simple and proven moneymaking system works

You're about to learn two proven methods of making money online from home. All you need is an Internet connection, a computer, and 30 minutes a day. If you're savvy enough to send and receive email, and surf the web, you can learn how to do this in an incredibly short period of time.

Unfortunately, if you're looking to make a killing on just one opportunity, this tactic probably won't work for you. But if you are interested in a business that you can set on autopilot while generating a nice £500 to £1000 a month in your spare time, then this opportunity is for you. Your initial time investment can be as little as one hour with considerably less time spent keeping it running.

After you've completed this simple process once, it's easy to duplicate again.

Once you have 4 or 5 of these simple income streams running, you'll be able to tell your boss you're going on holiday—permanently if you like. And the best part is, you only need to spend 10 minutes once or twice a week on each one making sure it's still pumping out cash for you and your family.

Now you could sell these for a substantial profit because people would want to buy them for the continuing income stream. But why would you? Because once these businesses are running, they continue running like clockwork without any more significant work on your part.

Before getting scared and allowing your imagination to run wild, here's what this opportunity isn't:

- ◆ It's not a complicated affiliate marketing plan requiring expensive software and hours of your time.
- ◆ It's not multi-level marketing requiring you to hassle all your friends and relatives to sign up and buy products from you every month.
- ◆ It's not selling the junk out of your attic or garage for a few pennies and then having to box and ship it.
- ◆ It's not email marketing requiring a hard-to-acquire big list of prospects
- ◆ It's not a get-rich-quick scheme
- ◆ It's not related to the stock market in any way
- ◆ It doesn't require lots of money up front

Introducing Armand Morin – Internet Millionaire

Before we go any further, let me introduce Armand Morin.

In his former corporate career, Armand worked in an office cubicle just like so many people still do. He figured out something so simple and profound and made millions taking advantage of it. Now he wants to give you the same opportunity. You'll probably want to kick yourself for not thinking of it yourself.

Armand decided he needed to set some strict criteria so he didn't waste his time and money.

Before choosing to invest the opportunity needed to meet 3 requirements:

1. It needed to be low-cost—less than $200 (£100) except in unusual cases.
2. It had to be something other people were willing to spend money on.
3. It had to be a fixer-upper—just like a run-down house—but with lots of potential.
Only in this case you don't need a construction crew and boatloads of cash to remodel it.

Because Armand already had a career in the corporate workforce, he wasn't desperate for money. More than anything, he desired more freedom and independence. Just like the rest of us.

Thankfully, one of the greatest benefits of working for yourself on the Internet is your income potential is only limited by your own imagination and how much time you want to put in.

During his first month online in 1996, Armand made $8000 (£4000). His next project brought in $4.2 million in 12 weeks. He hasn't worked for anyone but himself ever since. If that's not enough to convince you he knows exactly how to show you how to make a fortune in your spare time, I don't know what will.

During an interview recorded by a couple of high level Internet marketers, he reveals the exact tactics he uses to acquire simple web businesses and build his own income, website-by-website. He currently owns 20 of these businesses and his income exceeds just about everyone's wildest dreams.

[insert Johnson Box 4]

So, if you knew exactly how to buy a ready-made business for as little as £15 and could make £750 to £1000 a month while putting in 10 minutes a week, how soon would you start looking for one?

Success breeds imitation

Like it or not, we live in the era of cheap imitations. Someone sees or hears what another person is doing, and immediately create their own knock-off system to sell to unsuspecting people just looking to get ahead. They'll openly copy some parts of the system and stupidly choose to ignore others.

Copycats invariably jump onto the bandwagon selling similar products, courses, software, and other tools in an attempt to steal the market. Lots of folks get burned buying these cheap knock-offs only to find out one or more key ingredients are missing. And they really feel cheated when they don't make any money.

Because a few people heard about what Armand was doing, they figured they would try it too. But it didn't stop or even slow him down. He just kept on fine-tuning his system and making more money all the time.

For a little while the market seemed to become saturated by me-too artists, but Armand continued refining his methods because he knew in his heart his system would work for anyone that followed it like he does.

In just a few short years, he grew his income to $4.2 million (£2.1) a year. So don't get fooled by imitations, by sticking with Armand's proven success strategies you can grow your success just like he did.

[insert Johnson Box 5]

The state of this income building strategy today

While the copycats created a little confusion in the marketplace, the marketplace itself continued to grow and prosper. There's good news and bad news.

The bad news is more people are attempting to duplicate Armand's success. The good news is, they don't know the critically important details revealed during this newly released CD interview, so they just can't compete effectively in the market. Or worse yet, they simply ignore the advice. Fortunately, you're being given the opportunity to learn all the critical details to make this work for you too.

Frightened by the competition, some of the less market-savvy folks just turned tail and ran. Not Armand. He just turned up his creative thinking a notch and developed his system into a multi-million dollar a year business.

In fact, his business has continued to prosper as many of his competitors fell by the wayside. He just kept on improving his proven system and faced-down his biggest challenges head-on. This resulted in...

...his competition surrendering and moving on while his business kept on generating bigger and bigger paychecks.

And the best news is just in...

If a former office worker can do this in his spare time, you can too. To be perfectly honest, he usually only spends 30 minutes a night working this strategy. Don't get me wrong; he's a very smart guy. But he just doesn't want to work more than that. At this point he says he does it for fun.

Actually, he developed something so different from the usual, even highly experienced Internet marketers; Ted Ciuba and T.J. Rohleder were taken completely by surprise. In the many years they had been making a millions in their own Internet businesses, as well as personally knowing Armand for some time, they had never heard him talk about this strategy before.

[insert Johnson Box 1]

But if you think just reading this letter or buying expert advice will make you rich overnight, you're mistaken.

The road to freedom, independence, and real money is littered with people that failed to take the one step required.

Action.

That action could be as simple as spending 30 minutes every night looking for opportunities. Or it could be the one to three hours it takes to make your new opportunity start working for you and earning you money.

[insert Johnson Box 9]

You've built a continuous income stream

Let's compare a couple ways of investing your money.

If you invest £100 in a money market account at the current rate of about 5%, at the end of one year you'll have a grand total of £105 (give or take a little due to compounding differences). That extra £5 probably won't even get you to work and back...for one day.

On the other hand, if you invest £100 in an income generating opportunity as taught by Armand Morin, you could easily turn that into £500 to £1000 every month. I don't know about your world but in my world a 12000% return on investment doesn't present itself every day.

Magically compound your income

Better yet, this is where the true magic of compounding comes into play. First, keep in mind the bank just keeps paying the lousy 5% money market interest. Even though it's compounded daily, you still end up with a less than £111 at the end of the second year.

On the other hand, your simple income generating business continues pumping out £6000 to £12000 a year. All with very little extra effort on your part. You did the initial work, which in reality should only be one to three hours total, and it just keeps paying rich dividends consistently every month.

Because you're smarter than the average person, (you must be—you've read this far) you can certainly see where the smart money is going to go. Which would you rather have—an extra £5 a year—or an extra £12000 a year?

Now, who does this system work for?

It's not for the faint of heart. After all, you do have to give up one or two shows on the television a couple times a week.

But if you've been involved in the stock market since 2000, you'll know it's been a roller coaster ride. First it's up, and then it's down. Once in a while, it's sideways. There certainly isn't any type of guaranteed return if you're invested in the stock market. And if you aren't diversified you can lose most of your nest egg in one market downturn.

Stick your cash in the bank and live on the interest? The last time I checked, my bank was paying 0.25% on my savings account. At that rate, it'll take you 4 years to make £1 on a £100 balance. I doubt you can find a pint down at the local pub for that. And if you do, you'll run out of money by the time you get the second one.

As the post-WWII baby boomer generation ages, they're finally realizing they don't want to have to work into their 70s to pay for their retirement. Because depending on a government pension to fund traveling to your favourite holiday spots more than once a year doesn't leave much for food and shelter during the year. Let alone a comfortable lifestyle. Fortunately, you've just discovered a better way to fund your retirement in style.

What if I bought a franchise?

Of course, you could buy a franchise or another business. But all you're really doing then is buying yourself an 80-hour a week job and acquiring a massive debt, all before making a penny. On top of that, you have to sign a lease on an expensive property that you had to waste time locating, fund staff hiring and training, pay for utility overhead, and find a good management staff. If that isn't enough, now you have to deal with all the tax headaches. The prospect of running your own business, franchise or not, becomes quite daunting right away. And that doesn't even include the franchise fees you'll be paying right off the top of your profits to the corporation you just gave £100,000s of pounds to, for the right to put their name on the front of your business.

Now, that doesn't sound much like retirement to me. For that matter, it's not much of a lifestyle either. That's more like hell on earth.

Here's my lifestyle vision.

In the winter:

- Basking on the beach in the Virgin Islands drinking refreshing rum drinks while receiving a massage after snorkeling the reef just down the beach from the Divi Resort and Casino
- Enjoying the beautiful views of the harbor in Monaco from the balcony of my hotel suite—while checking the progress of my bank account using my laptop
- Skiing the Italian Alps during the day—absorbing the heat from a roaring fire at night—while sipping a hot toddy
- Just sitting around home enjoying the view of the bracken on the hills out my front picture window—instead of bundling up and driving to work every weekday

In the summer:

- Driving my dream car on the winding road out past my house to the ancient castle ruins overlooking the waves crashing on the rock outcroppings—my dream car, by the way, is the Mercedes SLR McLaren. The Gran Turismo body design reminds me of the legendary SLR racing cars of my youth.
- Taking a Mediterranean cruise through all the Greek Islands with my wife.
- Diving on the Great Barrier Reef in Northern Queensland Australia (their winter is the dry season) along with exploring historic Cookstown and the Daintree Rainforest Preserve.

Which lifestyle would you rather live?

Imagine for a moment, living in your new dream home. The fishing pond out back—swimming pool to relax in when it's hot—nice shop building for your favourite projects—a garage big enough for all the cars your family owns.

Even if your dream home is a small cottage in the countryside, you're just one small click away from realizing that dream.

“How to Make Money with Other Peoples Websites In 30 Days or Less”

After such great success for his own business, Armand Morin—Internet Millionaire—decided to release to the general public his proven system of making money using other people's websites. And amazingly enough, he does it using eBay, the largest online marketplace in the world. Now, hang on, this isn't about selling your old socks and shipping them out by post.

[insert Johnson box 8]

Now that he's revealed these secret methods known only to a few people in the USA up till now, you can use this almost foolproof step-by-step system to generate huge profits for yourself.

Just some of what you'll learn:

- Exactly where to look for the best website business opportunities and why it's not

- necessary to spend more than 30 minutes a day on this
- How much to pay (and why it's not necessary to pay more)
  - Which type of sites make the most money
  - More importantly—which type of sites to avoid
  - How to do all this without needing to know how to program or build a website yourself—this is sweet because most people avoid this type of opportunity simply because they don't know anything technical
  - What type of products that sell best so you can pick only the best ones
  - The easy way to use affiliate links without actually running your own affiliate program avoiding all that hassle
  - How to create up to 6 products from one and quadruple your income
  - Then how to take those 6 and make 6 more—all without writing a single word
  - Where to go to find out whether people want a particular product or not
  - The two easiest ways to make a website business start making money right away
  - Once it's up and running, how to cheaply and easily attract customers to your site, so your advertising costs only pennies per customer
  - Why research is the most important key and how to do it right without taking a lot of your time
  - How to turn $5 (£2.5) in advertising into $35 (£17.5) in profit over and over again
  - The one simple item to post on your website that triples sales immediately
  - Which three features to look for before buying any website business that you absolutely must know in order to maximize your profits and minimize your time investment
  - Why to use a particular payment processor and by doing so how you'll increase your profits even more
  - How to add a simple free backend product with only a few minutes a week time investment to add a substantial backend profit (it's like free money in the bank)
  - Which type of audio your site should have and which it shouldn't—because one increases sales and one doesn't—and because the right type has been known to increase sales up to 600%
  - How to generate another £5 a month from every customer forever

[insert Johnson Box 11]

How to double your money in real estate without ever collecting rent

Now if you're interested in buying and selling real estate, you're about to discover a completely unknown technique for doubling your money every time without ever setting foot outside your home or office.

- How to properly analyze the property from the comfort of the chair in front of your computer
- The one most important term to search for when looking for a real estate deal
- Who to call, how to make sure the telephone number is the right one, and why—so you protect yourself and your money before investing
- The important button to click for a few pieces of critical information you need to know prior to laying down your hard earned money
- The absolute fastest way to resell your property—often in one to two days—while doubling your money in the process
- Better yet—how to use this same strategy on a non-real estate product and still double your money every time
- The two critical items you must know in order to make your sale really fast

For those of you that grab this opportunity now while it lasts

You're being given the opportunity few people ever see even once in their lifetime. It's an opportunity anyone can grab hold of, and make more money than they ever imagined possible. It's a proven wealth-building system so amazing simple I wish I'd thought of it. Yet most people totally overlook this opportunity. Armand Morin actually tells you exactly how he built his multi-million dollar business utilizing techniques he's never revealed before now to the general public.

Just a few distinct advantages you'll enjoy over the crowd seeking to make money on the Internet...

- Automatic traffic without doing anything
- Least amount of money needed to invest
- Least amount of work needed
- How to be different and make a bigger profit as a result
- The one thing to add to a turn-key website that makes a huge increase in sales that most people don't know about or do
- Once you've got it going, how to turn it into a multi-million dollar a year business (but only if you want to)

So if you're seriously looking to get yourself out of your current situation...maybe out of your job or whatever it may be...you can simply utilize just one of the concepts revealed in this two hour and 15 minute interview and easily start making money right away.

[insert Johnson Box 10]

Forget about waking up late at night worrying if there's a better way to make a living. You can stop checking the classifieds looking for a better paying job. And for your own sanity, you can stop hanging out in Internet marketing forums hoping someone will throw you a bone, and telling yourself you're really doing market research.

And amazingly enough, once you've got this going, there are at least five more ways to make even more money off this same information. But in order to learn about those, you'll need to click on the order button and take advantage of this offer.

I'm grabbing my Wealth Builder CD set now

So it's all down to you whether you want to spend a few quid and try it out for six months. If you don't think this CD set is packed full of valuable information send it back in the same condition you received it. I'll gladly refund you 100% of your purchase price. Because I'm going to limit the number of sets sold, I want to make sure these sets get into the hands of people that really want to take action and make some real money.

Unlimited creative thinking creates unlimited wealth

One of the exercises many smart teachers do is encourage people to dream up different ways to do every process they use to build their business. People that do this often find new and better ways to do things. In fact, they generally find out just how badly they've limited themselves.

So Armand isn't concerned about sharing his strategies with a small group. There are billions of Internet users and plenty of business to go around.

And because Armand's methods go way beyond the usual ways of using eBay to sell small items one at a time for a small profit. He's leveraged his knowledge into a high-profit moneymaking machine set on autopilot.

Let's get down to brass tacks here

After some deep thought taking into account his vast experience, Armand decided to release these recordings. He felt it was time to allow others to share in the bounty he's enjoyed so much.

[insert Johnson Box 2]

Now some of you probably wonder if there really is room for more people doing this. eBay reports as of March 31st 2007 there were 233.4 million registered users. Not only that, they reported a 21% growth in registrations in the last 12 months. That means there's plenty of business to go around.

Armand's system will give you more control over your business and your life as well, so you can worry less while earning more.

Ultimately, this special system takes the notion of making money on eBay in a whole new direction. You aren't building an online garage sale but a scalable business that you can continue to build full-time or part-time and keep on increasing your monthly income until you decide to stop.

When you make the decision to begin building your family's wealth

You'll get...

The "How to Make Money using Other People's Websites in Thirty Days or Less" program featuring Ted Ciuba, T. J. Rohleder, and 5 other high powered Internet Marketers mercilessly grilling Armand Morin making sure he reveals everything without holding anything back
